- We continue to build on our AI initiatives:
 - Expanding adoption: Myra engaged in over 90,000 daily conversations across multiple Indian languages and English, of which more than 55% originated from Tier II and Tier III cities in India, during the quarter ended September 30, 2026. Further, in the quarter ended September 30, 2026, Myra resolved over 53% of post-booking queries in relation to flights and hotels. Myra has capabilities spanning end-to-end trip planning, voice interactions and in-chat payments and assisted on an average of more than 3,000 completed bookings per day during the quarter ended September 30, 2026.

- b. Higher conversion: Customers engaging with Myra completed approximately 1.7 times more bookings compared with non-Myra users for the quarter ended September 30, 2026. In addition, customers from Tier II and Tier III cities in India engaging with Myra completed approximately 2.1 times more bookings compared with non-Myra users for the quarter ended September 30, 2026.

Commenting on the results, Rajesh Magow, Group Chief Executive Officer, MakeMyTrip, said,

“We delivered strong growth despite a challenging travel environment, with Gross Bookings increasing 20.9% year on year in constant currency to $2.7 billion. Growth in hotels and ground transport underscored the resilience of our diversified portfolio and our ability to serve evolving customer needs. We are using AI to simplify travel planning and booking, supported by our extensive supply network, integrated distribution platform and trusted service. We continue to invest with discipline to capture India’s long-term travel opportunity and deliver sustainable, profitable growth.”
